This 3D rendering provides a top-down view of the Volvo XC90's interior, highlighting the spaciousness and design of the second row. The layout includes two front seats, a rear bench seat with integrated headrests, and two side seats. A central console with a storage compartment is positioned between the front seats. The rear bench seat is flanked by two side seats, each with a storage compartment. The overall design is clean and modern, with a focus on comfort and functionality.
